FOREWARD

This HVAC&R PRODUCT DIRECTORY of manufacturers and their representatives has been prepared by your ASHRAE Chapter with RepGuide as a service to all members of the industry. The directory is intended to foster better communication between manufacturers, representatives, distributors, wholesalers, engineers, contractors, and other interested parties within the HVAC&R industry. The directory listings are not limited to ASHRAE members and the listings are not to be considered an advertisement or endorsement by ASHRAE.

Thank you to all who made this directory possible through your support.

If you or someone else would like to join the directory next year, please submit your information to our directory partner at:
